God my Rock, He is my fort-ress. He my strength, my shield, my song.
God my Rock set hea - ven qua-king, shook the earth and dried the sea.
God my Rock, there is no o - ther, my strong re - fuge in the night.
God my Rock who lives for - e - ver, bless - èd be His mi - ghty name!

Held by arms whose might is end - less I am safe though foes be strong.
On this rock my foes are break - ing; in its sha - dow I am free!
Gen - tle Lord, my faith - ful bro - ther, sets my feet firm on the heights.
Ven - geance - gi - ver, strong de - liv' - rer, Lord who re - scued me from shame.

9

Held by Him whose love is bound - less I am safe though night be long.
When my e - ne - mies were ra - ging God sent down to re - scue me.
None are safe who trust a - no - ther, He a - lone brings life and light.
I will praise You now and e - ver, through the a - ges still the same.
